A Hero Ain't Nothin' But a Sandwich by Alice Childress falls under the genre of contemporary realistic fiction and is intended for children 13-16 years of age. Due to the drug usage, I would say it is a book meant to children a little older than the typical middle school chapter books. The book won the Lewis Carrol Shelf Award in 1975.

Scarred Phantom Hero draws on the idea that a hero is an ordinary person with deep flaws and scars. I love Heyzeus Hero both for the humor in his name and the ironic commentary in his name. And if a spider can be a hero, if a bat can be a hero, a kryptonite exposed man can be a hero, why not A Hero Called Wonder Goat or one named Jarvis the ...
