A Treacherous Paradise - Kindle edition by Henning Mankell ...
Henning Mankell's fascinating new novel, "A Treacherous Paradise," is largely set in Mozambique during the early years of the 20th century. But the story starts in Sweden. A young girl, Hanna Renstrom, is sent away from her isolated rural home because her family, confronting a famine, can no longer feed all its members.

'A Treacherous Paradise,' by Henning Mankell - The New ...
Hanna begins life in icy poverty in turn-of-the-20th-century rural Sweden. When her mother insists that she head into the world, Hannah becomes a cook on a ship headed for Australia; she marries an officer, is widowed, jumps ship in Africa, becomes deadly ill at a "hotel," recovers, marries the "hotel's" owner,...

A Treacherous Paradise. Africa features prominently in the work of Mankell (The Shadow Girls), both in his acclaimed Wallander mysteries and his many stand-alone books, including this fine historical set in Portuguese East Africa (now Mozambique) in the early 20th century.

A Treacherous Paradise: Amazon.co.uk: Henning Mankell ...
This book from Swedish crime novel writer Henning Mankell chronicles the journey of a Swedish woman to Africa back in the 1900's. Much was focused on the racial tension between the colonial whites and the local blacks, and the woman's desire to 'do the right thing'. Unfortunately, I find the story a bit slow and not engaging enough.

A Treacherous Paradise Henning Mankell

In the opening chapters of A Treacherous Paradise, by Henning Mankell, a young woman leaves a life of desperate poverty in rural Sweden in 1904 to seek her fortune aboard a sailing ship set for Australia. The beginning took me back to my own grandmother's flight from Sweden a few years later, in 1908.
