However I have greater personal interest in FN2. Unfortunately I think FN2's pass rate is pretty much the worst (which I take as an indication of difficulty). For now I'm focusing on my BCOM though so that I actually have some sort of completed education, instead of only being able to say I'm a PACE level CGA student without any piece of paper ...

I had him for Accounting Theory (AT1) and Advanced Corporate Finance (FN2). Rick is an awesome teacher for AT1 and the problems done in class closely match those found on the final. As for FN2, one must study on their own and rely mostly on the CGA past exams. He does not cover all the material needed to pass FN2.
