One-Eyed Cat by Paula Fox - Goodreads

One-Eyed Cat is a beautiful story about the relationships that we build with our friends and family. This book reveals that friends and family are supposed to love unconditionally, accept one another and be there to listen. Ned is for the most part a good kid but one day, the son of a minister decides to disobey his father.

One-Eyed Cat by Paula Fox, Erika Meltzer |, Paperback ...

Written in Fox's sure, resonant prose, this follows Ned Wallis, the minister's son, through the eight months after a secret disobedience: he fired a forbidden air rifle, the gift of a much loved uncle, and possibly—probably—hit something. Though Ned's 1935 home is a strained place (his mother, suffering from rheumatoid arthritis, is bedridden), Ned seems happy enough until that shot.
