Tell Me who I Am, O Enneagram. Strictly
speaking, the
enneagram is a circle with nine points on it (ennea means “nine” in Greek, and gram means “line drawing”). Inside the circle two figures connect the nine points, a triangle and an oddly shaped six-pointed figure. Most

I was hoping there would be a copy of an enneagram test in the book, but there wasn't, so I went online took a couple of the online inventories. I like the faith perspective that Richard Rohr writes from, And the diagrams in the book are very good for helping to understand the concepts as well as the assertions that the author makes.

the Bible?" Answer:
What is known as the
"Enneagram of Personality" or the
"Traditional Enneagram" is a complex system of understanding
individuals that touts
itself as the most dynamic and open of the various typologies
and also offers itself as a path to liberation or self-actualization .
