My name is Norm Williams. I co-managed the Seeds of Time, along with my very good friend, Jim Wilson, from 1967 through 1971. The first time I saw them play, they opened for Country Joe & the Fish, at the Afterthought on 4th Ave. We took the band on the road in the summer of '67 and again in '68...around B.C. and Alberta.

Chronoclasm is a thoughtful (non-action) time travel paradox. Time to Rest is a pastoral tale, where a human loner travels the Martian canals, living a tinker's life. Varied short stories by John Wyndham, some from before WW2 and some decades later, and still fresh. 20 years since I last read them.
