Katharine finds the man's flirtations both infuriating and exhilarating, and thus, first-time novelist Chapin sets the stage for a smart and charming work of historical fiction. Using blank spaces in Shakespeare's biography and the facts of his oeuvre, Chapin makes her heroine co-creator of "Venus and Adonis." Katharine and Will enjoy some truly delightful banter, as well as some intensely sensual moments, but this Shakespeare is, ultimately, a sort of emotional vampire.

Literary Echoes Literary Echoes. In her debut novel, "The Tutor," Chapin places her Shakespeare with a Roman Catholic family in 1590s Lancashire. There, despite his "small Latin and less Greek," he is to educate the family scions. He also flirts flamboyantly with Katharine de L'Isle, a young widow for whom a good book is better than anything that's...

The Tutor by Andrea Chapin - Goodreads

The Tutor by Andrea Chapin. A bold and captivating novel about love, passion, and ambition that imagines the muse of William Shakespeare and the tumultuous year they spend together. The year is 1590, and Queen Elizabeth's Spanish Armada victory has done nothing to quell her brutal persecution of the English Catholics.
